

We talked about presenting order.

Fix up the db for new inputs from the forms

Show fake backend

The meeting focused on conducting a live demo of the website, assigning different parts to team members, and emphasizing the need to keep track of issues for review and communication via Discord.

- No slides needed, just a live demo of the website.
- Divvy up the demo among team members and get familiar with navigating the website.
- Keep a log of issues for sprint retrospective and communicate through Discord